Privacy Policy: Usage: 7 December 2020 version 3.6.0 performance improvements and bug fixes When reading a lot of reviews saying that they were experiencing problems when buying a sporting event, I decided to try it myself. I bought a UCL game and I have no problem watching any games. However, I have an iPhone X when I click full screen in the competition, it won't really fill the screen (yes, I enjoy watching the video with Notch stop judging me please). When I watch the game and it's quite annoying. If they fix a few problems, both of my life will be complete. Thank you for talking to my tee. As a name state, I downloaded the B/R app to watch the Champions League football. This service will broadcast only one match per day, which is why I chose to pay a $2.99 fee to watch my favorite team play each game I want to watch. I'm excited to learn that coverage CL switched to CBS for a 20/21 season ($5.99/month for all games and highlights shows? Register me!) Recently it was clear to me that I was charging for a $10 monthly fee from this service over the last three months. I never opened an app during this time, but they had my card information and for some reason I was charged. When I try to log in to cancel the service (that I don't remember signing up for anything), I'm not sure i'm going to be able to sign up for it. When trying to change my password, the link they emailed me does not work. After several attempts to reset my password, I emailed customer service to fix the problem. Luckily they cancelled my membership the next day (the reason for the second star in my review), overall the service was highly priced and gentle, since half-time performances during the game had scarce commentary and did not show any highlights from other competitions, if they did not have the privilege of the Champions League and Europa League, I would not take this at all. There is a billing and streaming issue every time I buy a subscription. The latest is to buy a monthly football package, and after buying it on my Roku TV through the B/R Live app, I never had access to the games I wanted to watch. After spending 20 minutes logging in/out several times and trying to recover the purchase, I contacted support. After the game ended, I received a reply stating that none of my records were purchased (although my bank account was billed, it was in my Roku account immediately and I bought it through the B/R Live app), then had to email them back with a screenshot proving that I had bought it. After half an hour, they settled this and emailed me back saying, please log out and log in again. Also, make sure you cancel your monthly subscription when the sports season ends, I still have to pay for a month of Champions League packages last year after the season ends and there are no games that month. This website developer's privacy policy is not available in your territory. But sometimes we stream events overseas.
